TERMS & CONDITIONS

Effective upon registration

1. Introduction

These Terms and Conditions ("Terms") govern participation, conduct, evaluation, and administration of the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 ("the Event"), organized by Capgemini ("the Organizer"). The Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 is a structured, multi-round innovation program designed to identify and nurture high-quality talent through progressive evaluation stages.

By registering and participating in the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026, participants and their teams unconditionally accept these Terms in their entirety, including all rules, timelines, evaluation outcomes, and decisions made by the Organizer or its designated committee.

2. Scope and Applicability

These Terms apply to all the following:

2.1 Persons Covered

- All registered and eligible participants and teams
- Mentors, judges, evaluators, speakers, and volunteers

- Organizers and partners

2.2 Activities Covered

- All virtual and in-person rounds of the Event
- All Side Quests and supplementary challenges
- All platforms, communication channels, and venues associated with the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026

3. Eligibility and Registration

- Participation is open only to teams registered through official channels designated by the Organizer.
- Teams must consist exclusively of students graduating in 2026 or 2027.
- Submission of false or misleading information may result in immediate disqualification at any stage.
- Only students from selected MoU colleges are eligible to participate, regardless of individual registration status.
- Registration does not automatically confirm participation. A confirmation email from the Organizer or its appointed service provider is required to formally participate.

4. Team Composition

4.1 Team Size

- Each team must consist of exactly five (5) members.
- Teams with fewer or more than five members are ineligible to participate.
- Team members must be from the 2026 or 2027 graduating batch.
- Teams can be formed in any combination across the two batches.
- Teams can only be formed within the same colleges.
- Teams that do not comply with this composition requirement will be disqualified.

4.2 Roles and Responsibilities

- One member must be designated as the official Team Representative for all communication with the Organizer.
- The Team Representative is responsible for ensuring the team receives and acts on all official communications.

4.3 Team Changes

- Team composition is locked upon completion of registration.
- Any proposed changes to team composition must be formally submitted to and approved by the Organizer in advance.
- Unauthorized changes to team composition will result in disqualification.

- Winning the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 or receiving a prize does not guarantee employment with Capgemini and has no bearing on any existing Letter of Intent (LOI) issued by Capgemini.

8. Side Quest Challenges

8.1 Overview

Side Quests are optional supplementary mini-challenges conducted alongside the main Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 rounds. Formats include quizzes, treasure hunts, creative challenges, and other activities. Side Quest performance may contribute bonus points to the main leaderboard and serve as a tiebreaker, but will not override main round evaluation outcomes.

8.2 Frequency and Duration

- One Side Quest will be conducted each week during the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026.
- A total of 4–6 Side Quests will run during the Event.

8.3 Participation and Scoring

- Participation in Side Quests is optional.
- Side Quests may award individual, team-level, or college engagement reward points.
- A separate leaderboard will be maintained for Side Quest performance.
- Specific formats and scoring criteria will be communicated separately for each Side Quest.

9. Submissions and Deliverables

- All submissions must be made exclusively through platforms designated by the Organizer.
- Submission deadlines are strict; late submissions will not be accepted under any circumstances.
- All work must be original and created during the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 period.
- Use of third-party tools, libraries, or datasets must be legally licensed and fully disclosed at the time of submission.
- Submissions are final once submitted and may not be altered thereafter.

- The final submitted deck, prototype, codebase, and supporting documentation will constitute the official material for evaluation.

10. Evaluation Criteria and Methodology

The Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 assesses solutions on five core dimensions: Novelty, Simplicity, Feasibility, Design, and Business Value.

10.1 Evaluation Approach

- Pre-Qualification and early rounds may include AI-assisted screening.
- Advanced rounds are evaluated by expert panels.
- Judges' decisions are final and binding on all participants.

10.2 Results Communication

- Results of each round will be communicated directly to qualified participants via the registered email address on file.
- The right to determine winners vests with the authorized decision-makers of Capgemini India.
- Internal scores, evaluation details, and jury deliberations are strictly confidential.

11. Code of Conduct

11.1 General Conduct

- Participants must act professionally, ethically, and with integrity at all times.
- Respectful communication and collaborative behavior are mandatory.
- Harassment or discrimination of any form will not be tolerated and may result in immediate disqualification.

11.2 Integrity and Academic Honesty

- Any form of cheating, including plagiarism, use of unauthorized external solutions, submission of pre-built work, or undisclosed collaboration, is strictly prohibited.
- Participants must complete all work independently within their registered team. Seeking or providing external assistance beyond approved mentors is prohibited.
- Participants are required to thoroughly understand the rules of each round prior to participating; ignorance of the rules will not be accepted as grounds for appeal.

11.3 Confidentiality

- Participants are strictly prohibited from posting confidential Event content (including problem statements, evaluation criteria, internal discussions, or jury feedback) on social media or any public platform without express authorization from the Organizer.
- Participants may not request or facilitate such unauthorized disclosures through third parties.
- Discussion of internal scores or evaluation details — during or after the Event — is prohibited.
- Unauthorized disclosures may result in disqualification or other appropriate action.

11.4 Platform and System Integrity

- Any attempt to tamper with or manipulate submission platforms, evaluation systems, or any digital infrastructure used for the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 will result in immediate disqualification.
- Sharing login credentials, submission access, or platform access with unauthorized individuals is strictly prohibited.

11.5 Responsiveness and Communication

- Participants must ensure reliable internet connectivity and access to a compatible device for all online components.
- If a participant or team fails to respond to communication from the Organizer within the specified timeframe, the Organizer reserves the right to disqualify that participant or team.
- In the event of technical difficulties, participants must promptly notify the designated support team.
- The Organizer shall not be liable for issues arising from power failure, technical disruptions, connectivity issues, or other unforeseen interruptions.

11.6 Withdrawal

- If a team wishes to withdraw, the Team Representative must notify the Organizer in writing at xxxxx@capgemini.com within 24 hours of the relevant round result announcement.
- Failure to provide timely written notice may impact eligibility for future Events.

11.7 Health and Safety (In-Person Events)

- Participants must comply with all venue rules, safety guidelines, and staff instructions.
- In a medical emergency, the Organizer will provide reasonable immediate support (first aid and ambulance assistance). All resulting medical expenses, including hospitalization, are the sole responsibility of the participant. The Organizer does not provide insurance coverage for medical emergencies or accidents.

12. Intellectual Property

- By participating, teams grant the Organizer and its affiliates, sales and marketing partners, and their respective employees, contractors, agents, licensees and assigns all of its rights including the Intellectual Property Rights on exclusive, irrevocable, worldwide, royalty-free basis to use the submissions to build solution in the form of Organizer's asset/accelerator/POC. Further, teams waive-off any right to inspect or approve the final materials and acknowledge that no compensation will be provided for such use.
- Any third-party intellectual property incorporated into a submission must be legally licensed and fully disclosed.
- The Organizer has no obligation to screen submissions in advance for intellectual property violations and bears no liability for such violations.

13. Disqualification and Penalties

The Organizer reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to issue warnings, disqualify individuals or teams, remove participants from the Event, or revoke awards in the event of:

- Violation of any provision of these Terms
- Breach of Capgemini policies or applicable law
- Fraudulent, unethical, or unprofessional conduct
- Submission of false or misleading information at any stage

All disqualification decisions are final and binding.

14. Organizer Rights and Reservations

- The Organizer reserves the absolute right to modify, alter, postpone, or cancel any aspect of the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 — including format, evaluation process, shortlisting criteria, dates, venue, platform, rules, rounds, agenda, logistics, and awards — at its discretion, with or without prior notice.

- The Event may be canceled or rescheduled without liability due to unforeseen circumstances, including force majeure events.
- Decisions regarding evaluation, shortlisting, and final winners are final and binding.
- The Organizer reserves the right to modify these Terms at any time. Continued participation constitutes acceptance of any amended Terms.

15. Data Collection and Privacy

By participating in the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026, participants consent to the collection and use of personal data for the purpose of administering the Event. Data collected may include:

- Name
- Email address and contact details
- Resume and academic information
- User profile information
- Submission content, including any personally identifiable information contained therein
- Any other information collected during registration

Personal information will be used solely for Event administration purposes, in accordance with Capgemini's Data Privacy Notice:
https://www.capgemini.com/in-en/careers/candidates-privacy-notice/

16. Disclaimer and Limitation of Liability

All materials and information provided in connection with the Event are provided "as is" without warranty of any kind. The Organizer makes no representations and disclaims all express, implied, and statutory warranties, including as to accuracy, timeliness, completeness, or fitness for any particular purpose.

The Organizer and its managing committee shall not be liable for any direct, indirect, consequential, punitive, special, or incidental damages arising out of or relating to these Terms or a participant's involvement in the Event, to the extent permitted by applicable law. This includes, without limitation, damage arising from:

- Technical failures of any kind, including malfunctioning of computer, cable, network, hardware, or software
- Unavailability or inaccessibility of transmissions or internet service

- Unauthorized human intervention in any part of the entry or evaluation process
- Electronic or human error in the administration of the Event
- Viruses, bugs, fraud, or force majeure events

By accepting these Terms, participants release and hold harmless Capgemini, its subsidiaries, affiliates, and partners from any liability arising directly or indirectly from participation in the Event, acceptance or use of any prize, or any of the circumstances enumerated above.

17. Miscellaneous

- If any provision of these Terms becomes void or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall be deemed severed, and the remaining provisions shall continue in full force and effect.
- These Terms, together with any supplementary terms of use communicated by the Organizer, constitute the entire agreement between the participant and Capgemini with respect to the Event, superseding all prior written and oral communications.

18. Governing Law and Jurisdiction

These Terms and any dispute or claim arising out of or related to the Event shall be governed by the laws of India, without regard to its conflict of law principles, and subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of India.

19. Acceptance of Terms

Participation in the Capgemini Exceller AgentifAI Buildathon 2026 constitutes full, unconditional, and legally binding acceptance of these Terms and all decisions of the Organizer. Participants who do not agree to these Terms must not register or participate in the Event.
